Dear Mr. Cao:

Your recently submitted classroom lesson plan for the 60-hour driver instructor education program has been approved for use at your school.

Any changes altering the basic format or content of the courses must be submitted and approved by the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) prior to implementing.

You are responsible for revising your approved lesson plan as requested by DMV to ensure that all required subject areas presented reflect substantial ongoing changes in related statutes, regulations or other requirements. In addition, only those revisions requested by DMV will be reviewed for compliance.

Please note and understand that DMV will not intervene in contractual agreements. DMV is not responsible for any subsequent use by others regarding the content of the lesson plan that you sell. This means that if you sell your lesson plan, DMV has no obligation to control or monitor the use of the lesson plan by others.

Each instructor should have a copy of this lesson plan in his/her possession when teaching a class.

Sincerely,
