Dear Mr. Cao:

The driver education program submitted as an online 30-hour driver education lesson plan has been reviewed and is hereby approved.

Any changes altering the basic format or content of the course must be submitted and approved by the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) prior to implementing.

EZ Street Driving School is responsible for revising the approved lesson plan as requested by DMV to ensure that all required subject areas presented reflect substantial ongoing changes in related statutes, regulations or other requirements. In addition, only those revisions requested by DMV will be reviewed for compliance.

Please note and understand that DMV will not intervene in contractual agreements. DMV is not responsible for any subsequent use by others regarding the content of the lesson plans that you sell. This means that if Learn and Permits sells the lesson plan, DMV has no obligation to control or monitor the use of the lesson plan by others.

A Certificate of Completion, form DL 400C, shall be issued to students who complete the training required by Section 12814.6 (a)(4)(b) of the California Vehicle Code.

Sincerely,
